Nationalism and Militarism

National pride and the desire for military strength fueled tensions. Countries competed to demonstrate their power through:

- Building up large armies and navies.
- Promoting nationalist movements that sometimes led to conflicts within multi-ethnic empires like Austria-Hungary.

The Assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand

The immediate spark igniting the war was the assassination of Austria-Hungary's heir, Archduke Franz Ferdinand, in Sarajevo in June 1914. This event triggered a chain reaction among alliances, leading to declarations of war.

Imperialism and Competition for Resources

European powers competed for colonies and resources worldwide, increasing rivalries and hostility, especially between Britain and Germany.
